Attention Ag in the Classroom Alumni!

What Are You Doing Over Your Spring Break?

The PA Friends of Ag Foundation invites you to attend a special workshop just for Ag in the Classroom Alumni at

Delaware Valley College, Doylestown

(in conjunction with their Annual A -Day event)

April 24-26, 2009

The Ag in the Classroom summer workshops provided learning experiences that educators could not get anywhere else. AITC II promises the same and more.

Topics Covered Will Include:

- Agriculture's Relationship with the Environment
- Production of Plant and Animal Products
- Economic Impact of Agriculture
- Misconceptions About Agriculture
- Alternative Energies and Renewable Fuels
- Food Science and Safety
- Integrated Pest Management (IPM)
- Bio-security
- And many more!

This workshop, Ag in the Classroom Level II (AITC II), is being offered to supplement information learned at the Ag in the Classroom workshops - with exhibits, demonstrations, and on site sessions. Participating AITC alumni will be able to build upon their original experience and integrate more agricultural concepts into their existing curricula.

Fees

Other than a nominal registration fee, there is no cost for this program. Participants' tuition, room, board, and course materials will be covered by the PA Friends of Ag Foundation. While AITC II is open to all AITC alumni, registration is limited to 40 participants (first come-first serve basis). ACT 48 hours are available.

Visit aitc.pfb.com for more information and/or to register online

Here's what last year's participants had to say about the program:

Thank you so much for providing a wonderful learning experience for teachers.

Rosemary Markow

Very well prepared!

Henry Sobota

It was a very interesting weekend, and beneficial attending A-Day.

Esther Ulery

Instructors from the college (were) very good.

Stacie Telnock

Being at Del Val gave another view on agriculture.

Carlene Pearce-Houston

I enjoyed the weekend and appreciated all the effort put into it to make it work.

Cathy Over

Well organized, covered many topics, (good) interaction between PFB and Del Val.

Norma Saylor

Location, short time frame, availability of professors as a resource and as presenter are all strengths.

Naomi Sollenberger
